Although I am unable to attend I want to personally congratulate on you for introducing the fiscally responsible and balanced budget for fiscal year 2012 to the residents of Caldwell. I appreciate all the hard work that must have been involved in keeping your budget level from last year. While New Jersey faces many challenges we have a unique opportunity to be a part of the solution not only have you stood shoulder to shoulder with this administration to enact a meaningful and bold reform, you have also followed through with a budget that falls well under the 2% cap without diminishing any services. I thank you for your tenacious pursuit of responsible budgetary policies and for demonstrating that a more efficient and effective government is possible. Again, congratulations on this accomplishment and best wishes for continuous success. Sincerely, Chris Christie, New Jersey Governor."
